

TITLE: Installation Engineer

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Reporting to the Installation Manager, the Installation Engineer is responsible for installing company products on customer sites.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- *Installation of the company product range to a high standard
- *Customer facing role and requires a flexible work ethic, with flexible working hours
- *Written site reports
- *Support customers with product advice
- *Deal with negative responses effectively
- *Any other reasonable duties requested by your Manager

SKILLS, LICENSES, CERTIFICATIONS ETC:

- *Able to use basic hand tools
- *Attention to detail
- *Semi-skilled joiner is preferable
- *Ability to interpret engineering drawings
- *Full UK driving license
- *Good standard of general education
- *Able to work under pressure and within customer deadlines
- *Excellent communication and listening skills
- *A polite and friendly manner and positive attitude
- *Ability to think on your feet with excellent organisational skills
- *Ability to absorb and retain product knowledge
- *Ability to work away from home as well as some overseas work

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

Dortek is offering a competitive hourly rate commensurate with experience, with benefits which includes, 20 days paid holidays. Guaranteed overtime overnight stays with paid expenses, subsistence and additional allowances.

If you are interested in becoming part of the Dortek team and making a difference, please send your CV along to: info@dortek.com.

